Subject: Pro Se forms; Review and Comment

Dear Guam Bar Association Members:

The Supreme Court of Guam Pro Se Litigation Subcommittee has been working with Guam Legal Services Corporation to install self-help, interactive computer kiosks in the courthouse. Initially, the kiosks will accommodate uncontested divorce actions and guardianship petitions. Eventually, the kiosks will accommodate name change petitions, simple probate cases, and other proceedings.

The Pro Se Litigation Subcommittee and Guam Legal Services have developed draft pleadings for uncontested divorce actions and guardianship over minors, which we now submit to the Bar for review and comment. Please note that the court has discretion to accept pleadings of various forms and formats, so long as the pleading comport with applicable rules and laws. Our intent here is to give members of the Bar the opportunity to review and comment on the forms to be used by pro se litigants who will utilize the new self-help kiosks.

Please return your comments to Andrew Sergio Quenga by fax 671-472-1246 or email your comments to gllexecdir@teleguam.net no later than May 15, 2009.

Thank you for your participation.

Sincerely,

Honorable F. Philip Carbullido
